SILVA natur

SILVA natur is a genuine natural oak surface with the usual wood grain. Depending on your taste, simple and elegant (oak elegance) or rustic and striking (oak rustic).

SILVA dekor

SILVA dekor is a matt and scratch-resistant surface that brings peace to any room, no matter how busy. Our surface is available in four decent natural shades.

SILVA - the new table generation from WERZALIT

The new SILVA table top made of beech laminate with oak veneer combines technical robustness and elegant design. The combination of sturdy beech laminate and the natural oak wood surface offers outstanding stiffness and high load-bearing capacity, even with intensive use. The thin profile of the table top gives it a slender appearance, which is emphasized by the fine layers of wood. Different table edges and corners offer individual design options and underline the high-quality workmanship. This table top is the perfect choice for anyone looking for long-lasting quality and elegant design.

From our standard range, we offer square, round, and rectangular tabletops, also available with rounded corners upon request. [Dimensions in cm]
